Help Northern Vietnam Recover After the Floods

We call on you to join the "Support Ethnic Minorities in Northern Vietnam" program. This program helps communities affected by floods and landslides. Heavy rains have destroyed many villages. Hundreds of people were injured, went missing, or became homeless. Our program includes the following action steps.

Action Timeline:

October 1st - 3rd: Distribute essential supplies:

We will provide food, clean water, blankets, and other basic items to families in the worst-hit areas.

October 4th - 13th: Clean up and restore public infrastructure:

Volunteer groups will clean up broken materials and help repair schools, clinics, and other public places.

October 14th - 28th: Rebuild homes:

We will assist in repairing and rebuilding homes for residents to help them quickly stabilize their lives.

October 29th - 30th: Psychological support and counseling:

We will hold meetings to provide psychological support to those affected, especially children and the elderly. We will also teach communities how to prepare for future natural disasters.

How to Join:

You can join by:

- Registering online: Visit our website at www.northernrelief.org to sign up as a volunteer or donate.
- Registering in person: You can also register directly with the organizers at 486 Thanh Xuan Street, Hanoi.
